JÉRÔME de WARZÉE

L'AUTEUR ET CRÉATEUR DU GRAND CACTUS

A man with a shaved head and a goatee, wearing a black suit, sits in a large, dark leather armchair. He is looking directly at the camera with a slight, knowing smile. His hands are clasped in his lap, holding a green cactus-shaped pendant on a chain. Behind him, a devil with red skin, horns, and pointed ears sits in the same chair, his hands resting on the man's shoulders. The background is a swirling, fiery red and orange smoke or fire. The overall mood is dark, provocative, and satirical.
